

Remuda

by Tara Miller

In form, line and carriage we see
A Remudas characteristic.
In mind, heart and ability
It is bound.

In our pride, love and respect
We feel for de caballos –
That's where our relationship to Fine Remudas is found.

Noble horses, joyful running free
And steady under rein.
Beauty and courage enhancing each other
Proudly shown in movement and mane.

The goodness of each horse is in the herd,
Remudas – our love and pride.
Let's honor the good mares, the good sires-
Those that are living, those that have died.
